One-Time Visit

Have you recently found an infestation around the house? We offer a single visit option to eradicate a wide range of destructive, disease carrying or stinging invaders. We will dispatch our trained and trusted exterminators to safely put an end to the problem pest. Sometimes when the infestation is isolated or the source is inside the house, one visit is all it takes.

Quarterly Visits

In the event that a single visit isn't enough, we also offer a quarterly pest control option for homeowners at a significant savings. We will eliminate the pests every three months, no matter where in your home they may hide, and if you have a problem between visits, we will dispel those vermin free of charge, as well. That's because with Legacy Pest Control, your peace of mind is what is most important.

Pricing

Pricing is based on the square-footage of your home, but don't forget to ask about the senior and veteran discounts, and monthly specials available in North Salt Lake, Utah.

Commercial Services

There are few factors that can hurt a business more than a pest problem, whether it is a food contamination issue at a warehouse or restaurant, or a customer issue in an office or retail environment. Legacy Pest Control can ensure that your business won't be bothered by pests, and our experience working with businesses will guarantee that you are back to normal in time.

Flexible Hours for Scheduling

We know that seeing a pest control expert during normal business hours can be disruptive to your business and send the wrong signal to customers, so that's why we are open to scheduling visits at times that are convenient for you.

FDA Logbook and Safety Compliant

We can help maintain and update logbooks that will help your business comply with the FDA record keeping requirements. The pest control treatments we use are also safe to use in any business environment and our chemicals comply with food service and safety regulations, so that nothing gets in the way of doing business.

Pest Control Solutions for North Salt Lake, UT

Not all businesses are equal and we take pride in adjusting our pest control solutions to the specific needs of your business. So call Legacy Pest Control Today and reclaim your business back from the pests.
