We here at Legacy Pest Control want to thank our customers throughout the Ogden and Salt Lake City metroplex for trusting us with your pest control needs over the past 15 years.

As a family-owned small business in Utah, we work with a heightened awareness of the importance of and gratitude for the support of our community. We strive daily to provide our customers with the highest possible quality at a fair price. We're also deeply committed to giving our customers a level of personal service that you can only get from a small company. When you choose Legacy Pest Control and other small businesses, you're building up the community around you. You're also benefiting from a lot of advantages that big national and global businesses just don't deliver.

Benefits to Customers of Local Small Businesses

Of course, in today's connected world of vast corporate services providers, here are just some of the great benefits of utilizing a local small business like Legacy Pest Control:

- Creates local jobs: Nearly 31 million small businesses employ over 47 percent of the workers.
- Fosters local innovation: Small businesses stand out from large corporate competitors with more customized solutions to customers' specific issues.
- Builds the local economy: Tax revenues from local businesses are reinvested in the community.

- Superior customer service: Local businesses take more time with their patrons, providing a better customer experience.
- Generates community support: Local business owners reportedly contribute over 200% more than large businesses to local causes.
- Promotes successful community: Helping individuals achieve their goals builds a thriving community around you.

Legacy Offers Customers Benefits of Small Service Business

Small businesses are uniquely positioned to provide more of the elements of better value for customers than larger companies with much more regimented operations:

- More Prompt and Effective Solutions: Small business teams are more attuned to their local customers' needs and can deliver rapid solutions quickly.
- Greater Accessibility: Response from Legacy Pest Control to customers is generally faster than that of large corporations.
- Better Service Quality: Small businesses are known for greater attention and going the extra mile for customers.
- More Personal Attention: Small business teams are more attentive to strong relationship building in their own community.
- Affordable Pricing: Local pest control companies and other businesses without the vast overhead of national brands can price lower to deliver higher value.
- Stronger Business Relationship: Local small businesses are in a league of their own in terms of commitment to building long-term customer relationships.
